

CITY SNAPSHOT

Your City Library

A Place to Build Minds of All ages

- Over 350,000 books were checked out last year.
- Your summer reading program kept 625 kids busy with a good book.
- Students use library computers and on-line resources every day of the week for homework and school projects.
- Small business owners rely on library materials to help grow their business.
- Seniors catch up on local and worldwide news at the library, and learn how to use computer technology at the same time.
