

Upcoming Trainings

Transforming the way city leaders tackle difficult challenges through dynamic and relevant educational opportunities

Mark your calendars now!

Municipal Budgeting & Fiscal Management

July 13-14 • Leavenworth

Learn new skills to enhance the city budget document by weaving in performance measures, understanding how to spot red flags early, and engaging citizens to reflect community priorities.

Regional Meetings

October-November • Various locations

Regional Meetings offer an interactive venue for city officials to hear AWC's latest legislative and programmatic information. Meet with AWC's Chief Executive Officer, get program highlights, and learn how to best engage with AWC before and during the legislative session.

Elected Officials Essentials

December 2 • Various locations

Join us for this workshop where you'll network with a group of your peers, interact virtually with trainers who've worked extensively with cities, and spend time together examining real-world municipal scenarios. The session covers your basic legal obligations and liabilities, and your statutory role and responsibilities.

City Action Days

January 24-25, 2018 • Olympia

AWC's winter conference offers an opportunity for city officials to address legislators with a single, unified voice. Engage in the state's policy development and budget process, discover how the legislative process works, learn about AWC's priorities, and hear from legislative leaders.

Elected officials:

Earn CML credits and get recognized!

AWC's Certificate of Municipal Leadership (CML) program recognizes mayors and councilmembers for accomplishing training in four core areas:

- Roles, responsibilities and legal requirements
- Public sector resource management
- Community planning and development
- Effective local leadership

Have you earned your CML? Find out more on AWC's website.

Mobile. Meaningful. Manageable.

Get ready for a series of workshops and events that support both new and seasoned leaders.
